Breakthrough in K.R. Pet Student's Murder

Two students held
Search on for 3 others
Was it IPL betting that led to teenager's murder?

Mysuru/Mandya, May 22 (NG, MTY & NNN)- On one side was the exciting IPL final where the Mumbai Indians beat Rising Pune Supergiant by one run in a nail-biting finish, last night at Hyderabad. On the other was the disturbing news of the IPL betting spreading its tentacles even to the rural areas and claiming the life of a teenage boy in a gruesome murder.

It may be recalled that a 14-year-old student Shashank was found murdered on May 16 with his throat slit in K.R. Pet, Mandya district.

The Police have arrested the prime accused, an 18-year-old Polytechnic student in K.R. Pet and subjected him to grilling. Out of the five involved in the crime, apart from the prime accused, another boy has been arrested.

All leads point to the IPL betting that a few minor boys are said to be allegedly involved in and the differences in the sharing of the betting money.

Shashank, a ninth standard student of Ashirwad English Medium School at Thegadahalli, was the son of Sujatha, a teacher at Bommanahalli Government School. His father Lokesh is an agriculturist.

Shashank

His uncle is also a teacher and hails from a cultured family.

"My son never watched cricket and he is innocent. I cannot believe that he could be involved in IPL betting and in bad company," said Sujatha.

However, the way betting operates is very murky. People who indulge in betting normally park their money with an innocent person. Then it becomes his responsibility to distribute the spoils among the winners.

In this case, it is said that Shashank could be in possession of the money and due to some reasons not able to give the betting money of Rs. 3,000 to his friends. Frustrated, they are said to have taken the boy, assaulted him in his private parts, slit his throat in a fit of rage and escaped.

K.R. Pet Rural Police, who are investigating the case, found the calls listed in the mobile phone of Shashank and came to a conclusion that it could be the result of betting in IPL. The boy had to return Rs. 3,000 to the gamblers and since he failed to return, his own friends had murdered him, it is alleged. The Police, however, are tight-lipped. Mandya SP Sudhir Kumar Reddy and Inspector H.B. Venkateshaiah refused to divulge any information at this stage, as it would hamper the investigation.

Search Panel meeting in Delhi to select Mysore Varsity VC cancelled

Mysuru, May 22 (NNN)- The Search Committee meeting to shortlist the Vice-Chancellor (VC) candidates for the University of Mysore that was to be held today (May 22) at the UGC office in Delhi, stands cancelled and the next meeting indefinitely postponed.

As a result, the wait for the appointment of the new Vice-Chancellor to the hundred-year-old University is getting longer. The sources in the University told Star of Mysore this morning that the meeting, when it happens, will be held in Bengaluru.

One of the Search Committee members, who is the Governor's nominee, is said to have written to the Governor taking exception to the meeting being held in Delhi. The Governor's office, in turn, has written to the Higher Education Department to cancel the meeting and instead hold it in Bengaluru.

Technology on, Livelihoods gone

Various occasions luring audiences of diverse backgrounds and featuring speakers of all hues from both open platforms and restricted ones are abuzz with a virtual unanimous view that only education can provide many-sided dividends such as a) saying goodbye to ignorance, b) transform the land's people at large into responsible, law-abiding citizens for building a vibrant, stable and progressive nation, c) empower the youth to face the challenges of life, d) bring about the much-needed makeover of human resources from job-seekers to job-creators, thus paving the path of sustaining the country's social as well as economic well-being, and not the least of all namely, e) address the ongoing process of snatching away livelihood of millions struggling with skills rendered obsolete as a result of advances in technological inventions, in various sectors up for grabs by both industry and public at large taking to new products like fish to water. However, the realisation that education has to contend with school drop-outs as well as graduates in a skill-vacuum is staring at powers that be, whichever political party or coalition is at the helm.

Even as the land's masses are helplessly placed in life, following loss of livelihood, while their tradition-bound trades and skills, along with their produce are no longer patronised and supported by their captive customers, we are hearing about strange-sounding terms such as a) artificial intelligence, b) robotics, c) nano-technologies and whatever. The players in these areas are virtually unstoppable in their path.

The points raised in the foregoing paragraphs are bound to arrest, with greater anxiety and seriousness, the attention of whichever government is formed in days ahead on the generally accepted score that providing jobs to everyone in the EPA (Economically Productive Age) sections of the growing population is the onus of the government. The degree of importance for private participation in that task is not to be ignored. The simplest example of loss of livelihood, particularly for the already economically weaker sections of society, which Mysureans can readily notice, is the case of a) plastic carry bags and b) areca sheath cups, trays driving out of business those producing bags out of old newspapers and stitching leaves for producing ootada yele (in Kannada). The global event of digital technology coming up with the ubiquitous camera-phones, resulting in closure of giants in photographic industry in nearly 150 countries, taking away the livelihood of millions is tell-tale.

In the backdrop of the central point of this column, namely technology showing the door to time-honoured trades and livelihoods of millions, it may be said that education assumes a new meaning. That is a) re-training and b) imparting newer skills for the job-aspirants, their annual addition to the nearly 300 million backlog is estimated at 10 million. Can there be any agenda of greater economic dimension to any government than this?

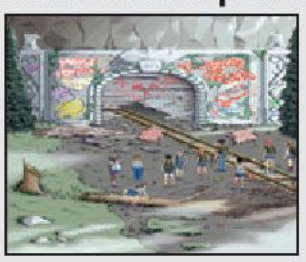
Painting created in Microsoft paint



London: In the mid 90s, when Microsoft Windows 95 was launched, MS Paint was one of the operating system's most fascinating tools. But creating truly impressive artworks with it required a lot of time and mountains of patience, so it came as no surprise that digital artists migrated to more advanced software like Adobe Photoshop as soon as they came out.

34-year-old Pat Hines discovered Microsoft Paint about 12 years ago, while working long over nights at a hospital reception desk, as a security guard. His early works weren't more than simple doodles, but as time passed, his illustrations got better, and he developed his own style. As you can imagine, creating detailed illustrations in a rudimentary program like MS Paint requires quite a lot of time and patience, and Pat Hines admits that it takes him around 3 weeks to create a realistic piece and about a week to create a cartoon-like artwork.

Farmer buries his truck

Montevideo: Alcides Ravel, a farmer from Uruguay, bought his Ford F-350 in 1969, when he was 35 years old. Recently, the 83-year-old man finally put his faithful vehicle to eternal rest, after 48 years of service, by burying it on his farm.

For most people, trucks are mere tools to be used and sold when they outlive their usefulness, but that's not the case of Alcides Ravel. Although his old truck had been broken down for over four years, instead of selling, he kept it safe from the elements in a shed on his farm, near the town of Barker, until he was finally ready to part with it. Three weeks ago, he buried his faithful companion on his land, a "small gesture" in honour of nearly five decades of service.

The time came to part with the truck that had been there for him for almost 50 years, the only way he could do it was with a proper burial. Three men and a backhoe spent two days preparing the two-meter hole on Ald to the site and covered up in its grave.

One-way rule violation, a serious issue

Sir,

Nowadays it is very common to see violation of one-way rule on city roads. It is also seen on prominent and busy roads at the city centre, even at night times.

One-way rule is imposed to avoid inconvenience to road-users, especially vehicles, when the road is very narrow and the sign boards are also placed on both ends of the road indicating the direction of the entry to that road.

According to rules of the road regulations (Motor Vehicle Act), violation of 'one-way' rule is prohibited under rule 17 of Section 118 of MV Act 1988 (59 of 1988). Under this law, even taking a reverse into a road declared as "one-way" is also prohibited. However, it is blatantly being violated and these drivers are causing inconvenience to other road users by blocking the road and risking for themselves.

The van in the photo (for representation only) is going against one-way rule of this road (Shivayana Mutt road off DD Urs road), where traffic is allowed to enter into this road only from Shivarampet side. However, many vehicles including autos, transport vehicles, besides any number of two-wheelers, are violating this rule by entering from DD Urs road side. Similar is the case on many other "one-way" roads in the city.

Will the motorists stop racing with the ambulance?

Sir,

It is really painful to observe many of the four-wheeler drivers heading for a race with the ambulance, in spite of having sufficient road clearance to give way to the ambulance. And the irony is that most of these drivers are educated.

Apart from not giving way for the ambulance, these drivers obstruct the free movement of the ambulance by their confused zig-zag driving hearing the hooter of the ambulance.

It is the duty of the motorists to give way for the ambulance — preferably the right hand side lane which is meant for vehicles of higher driving speed. For the patients in the ambulance every second is precious and the motorists should slow down and move towards left hand side clearly showing the indication, so that the ambulance can keep moving without any obstruction.

Modi Government focussing on development of all States: Naidu

BJP leader H.V. Rajeev is seen handing over a CD on 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' to Union Minister M. Venkaiah Naidu, during a party workers meeting held at a hotel in city on Sunday as MP Pratap Simha, Karnataka Hotel Owners Association President M. Rajendra, former MUDA Chairman L. Nagendra, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, former Minister S.A. Ramdas and other BJP leaders look on.

Mysuru, May 22 (SPN&DM)- Stating that 'Mission Modi' (Making of developed India) is Prime Minister Narendra Modi's initiative to repair the country's economy, Union Minister M. Venkaiah Naidu has said that the BJP with its highest number of members, is the largest political party in the world.

Addressing party workers at a hotel here on Sunday, Naidu said that BJP will emerge as a powerful party in South India in the days to come.

Referring to demonetisation, Naidu said that the Centre had cracked down on black money through various measures including demonetisation and this was paying dividend, with additional 91 lakh people coming under the tax net. Pointing out that stringent measures are in place so that money is not siphoned off from the country, the Union Minister said that reforms have ensured a steady flow of FDI.

Targeting Congress leaders including AICC President Sonia Gandhi, Vice-President Rahul Gandhi and Congress leader in Lok-Sabha Mallikarjun Kharge, Naidu said that the leaders should introspect to find reasons as to why the party lost its hold in the country.

Maintaining that the Narendra Modi Government was focussing on development of all States, Naidu said that efforts were on to revive the economy of many fiscal deficit and debt-ridden States, including Karnataka.

Commenting on the Opposition parties allegations that the BJP Government was tampering with Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) during the recent poll in five States, Naidu said that the Congress had no problems with its victories in the two by-polls in the State, but had issues when the BJP sweeps to power, thus exposing its double-standards.

Clarifying that the BJP was not against Minorities, Naidu said that any Minority community member who believes in unity and diversity of the country was welcome to join the BJP.

Asserting that the BJP would return to power in the State in the 2018 Assembly polls under the leadership of B.S. Yeddyurappa, he urged the party workers to serve as a communicator with facts and figures on the Union Government's schemes to strengthen the party.

Naidu was felicitated on the occasion. MP Pratap Simha, former Minister S.A. Ramdas, former MUDA Chairman L. Nagendra, former MLC Thontadarya, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, Karnataka Hotel Owners Association President M. Rajendra, Deputy Mayor Rathna Lakshman, leaders H.V. Rajeev, Nandeesh Preetham, Suresh Babu, Prabhakar Shinde and others were present.

A Swiss Souvenir

By Girija Madhavan

Tourists collect small souvenirs of their visit to enjoyable holiday spots. For me, our three-year sojourn in Switzerland is a treasured memory. It influenced my outlook and understanding of other cultures.

In 1961, my husband was posted to the Indian Embassy in Bern, Switzerland. With our infant son we started from Mysore by train to Madras. We could run up to the steam engine at halts where the driver would give us sterile water from the boiler to wash feeding bottles. At Bombay, we boarded the Italian liner, 'SS Victoria'. We touched Aden, sailed through the Suez Canal, halted at Naples and berthed at Genoa, Italy. A train through the Simplon Tunnel brought us to Bern.

I recall my first sight of the blue-green river Aare, foaming white at the weir, circling the town of Bern. The old city had cobbled streets and a medieval tower. An astronomical clock, a musical mechanism and a great bell were added later. It is called the "Zytglogge" or "Time Bell." The arcades had window boxes of flowers; red geraniums, purple petunias and blue gentians. In summer, Markt Platz was filled with stalls of vegetables and fruits; plums, greengages, peaches and aromatic apricots.

Our apartment was on Muristrasse, a road leading to the Lake Thun, while a fork led to Lake Lucerne. The signpost read "Thun Lucerne." An Indian visitor boasted, "I already understand some German; I know that Thun Lucerne means Turn Left"!

Our neighbour, Frau Trudi Z'graggen became a life-long friend. She was from Basel. Her husband Alfred had the Swiss virtues of discipline and sense of duty.

Swiss men did a compulsory tour of military duty every year. The wives were responsible for keeping the uniforms in order, polishing brass buttons and shining the boots. At that time Swiss women did not have the vote. A referendum in 1973 by Swiss men decided in favour of the vote for women.

We got to know members of the Swiss Foreign Office and their spouses. One of them, Frau Buhler kept a kindly eye on me. In summer, discarding cardigans and shawls, I attended a Reception wearing a sari and choli with a bit of midriff showing. Frau Buhler took me aside and whispered, "I have to tell you that your dress has come apart!" I pulled my pallu tightly round me and stayed covered.

On weekends, seeing cars loaded with skis heading for the snowy slopes, we also wanted to learn skiing. We went to a Dry Ski School atop Bern's iconic Gurten Hill in a large building. The floor, covered in matting sloped from the ground to a platform about eight feet from the ceiling. We learnt to climb to the top sideways, right ourselves to slide down the "piste". After painful tumbles, we learnt to stay erect and could go on real snow. The School is now a theatre, one of the attractions of the Gurten.

We chose the resort of Lenk for our ski holiday. The wintry landscape of bare branched trees laden with snow crystals seemed magical. Our rented chalet, its honey-coloured timber and golden lamplight was inviting. [Pic.1]

After the learner slopes we were to ascend a hill with the T-Bar. The metal support at our backs pulled us upward. After a while I fell off. The mechanism stopped and other skiers complained. I was shaken. I did complete the course and managed to ski a bit that year. Later on, I was happy to just pull my small son around on a sled. [Pic.2]

Another time we went camping trip, starting from Montreux on Lake Geneva. We unloaded the tent and tried to set it up. It did not look quite right but seemed habitable and we settled down for the night [Pic.3]. Soon the wind rose and raindrops spattered on the tent sides. I heard some hammering all around and grumbled about being disturbed. The next morning we found that the tent was insecure and it could have collapsed on us. Our neighbours had braved the rain and hammered in the tent pegs to safeguard us. I was deeply touched and my respect for the Swiss was reinforced. The best souvenirs are one's bonds of friendship with the people of other lands and cultures ▪

Mahadevappa, Large Scale Industries Minister R.V. Deshpande, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and MLA G.T. Devegowda.

Mysuru, May 22 (SBD&DM)- Union Minister M. Venkaiah Naidu has said that Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji of Avadhoota Datta Peetham was committed to build a casteless society on the ethos of equality, peace and love.

He was speaking after taking part in the eight-day Vajrotsava to mark the 75th birthday celebrations of Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji at Nada Mantapa of Sri Avadhoota Datta Peetham on Ooty road here last evening.

Pointing out that Sri Swamiji is an asset to the country and to the western world for preaching universal brotherhood, spiritually and helping people find solace, Naidu said the Seer is working towards bringing in unity and make people rise above religion and caste.

Commending the Sri Swamiji for reviving culture, promoting music therapy, ayurveda, yoga and also for penning 2,000 songs in many languages and composing keerthanas, the Union Minister said Sri Swamiji was striving to save the youths from being influenced by western world.

Venkaiah Naidu, who began his speech in Kannada seeking forgiveness for being unable to speak in Kannada, said that although he could understand Kannada, he was unable to speak the language.

Noting that expressing oneself is more important than the language of communication, Naidu delivered his speech in a mix of Kannada, Telugu, Hindi and English languages.

PM Modi recalls his visit to Ashrama

On the occasion, Venkaiah Naidu read out a message from Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who recalled his visit to the Ashrama in January 2016 and greeted the Seer on his birthday.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, who also spoke, said India will be looked down upon at international forums as long as social evils like untouchability and discrimination continue. The Minister lauded the commitment of Ganapathy Swamiji to end untouchability.

Large Scale Industries Minister R.V. Deshpande regretted the deterioration of values in society. Noting that the Swamiji is a secular minded Seer whose mantra is to take everyone together, the Minister highlighted the need for the Swamiji's guidance in building a better society.

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, who graced the occasion, said the Swamiji started the Ashrama in Mysuru to spread the message of truth and spiritualism. Noting that the Swamiji has a large following across the globe, the Suttur Seer said the Swamiji had won the hearts of the people with his message of peace, happiness and brotherhood.

MP Pratap Simha said it was wrong to say that the caste system exists only in India. Maintaining that discrimination based on vocational practices existed in almost all religions, the MP said that our saints must be credited for taking our society in the right path. He said that one should be proud of being born in India, which is a very tolerant and multi-cultural country.

MLAs Vasu, M.K. Somashekar and G.T. Devegowda too spoke on the occasion. Puttige Mutt Seer Sri Sugunendra Teertha Swamiji, Sri Datta Vijayananda Teertha Swamiji, former Minister S.A. Ramdas and others were present.

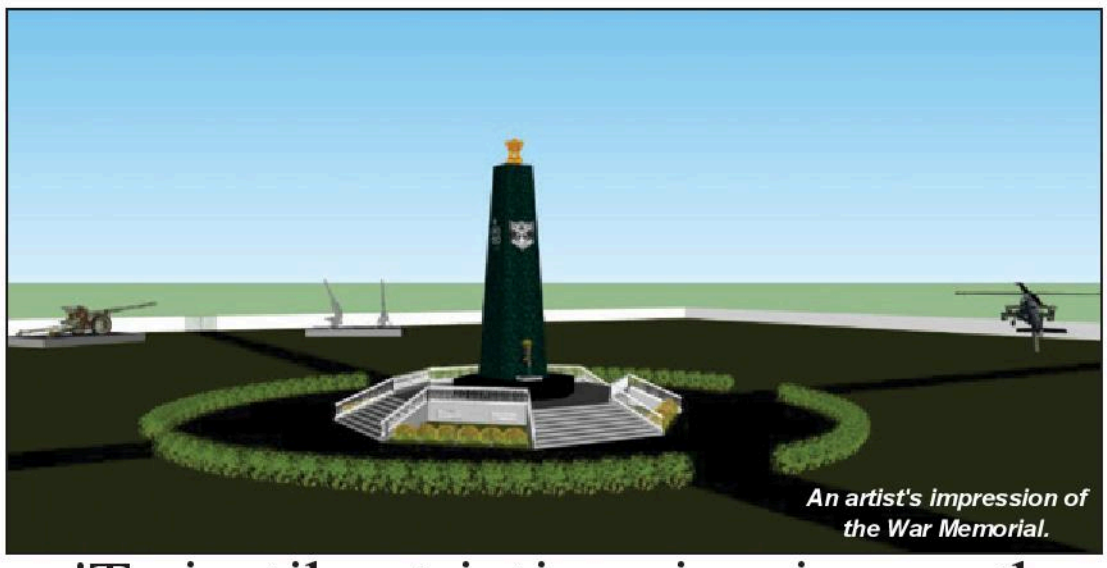
War Memorial to come up next to DC Office in city shortly



An artist's impression of the War Memorial.

'To instil patriotism, inspire youth to join armed forces'

Mysuru, May 22 (MTY&NNN) - The District Administration has taken a decision to erect a War Memorial at a cost of Rs. 2 crore to honour the soldiers who have laid down their lives for the country. This decision is also taken in a bid to instil patriotism among students and youth of the city.

The Ex-Servicemen Association had submitted a memorandum in this regard in 2010 to the District Administration. A beginning was made to search for a place to house the Memorial. Due to some reasons, it was put in cold storage. In 2012, the process to set up the Memorial began once again.

Assistant Commissioner (AC) C.L. Ananda, who himself had served in the army for 15 years, took up the cause and completed the necessary process and through the District Administration sent the proposal to the State Government.

It has been decided to construct the War Memorial in the five-acre park that is to the right of the DC Office. Ananda recently held a meeting with the War Memorial Trust Chairman Maj. Gen. C.K. Karumbaya (retd.) and based on the approval of this Trust has drawn a plan to also set up an auditorium to inspire the youth about the army.

The five-acre park that comes under the District Administration is lying in a state of neglect. As it is in a prominent place, once a War Memorial comes up then it will gain importance. Opposite to the garden is the NCC Office, behind it the Scouts and Guides Baden Powell School and surrounded by other colleges. Hence, it could attract the students' attention and instil in them a sense of patriotism besides raising their curiosity about the armed forces.

The Memorial in the form of a Square will have the elements of the city's heritage by using Hassan's green stone. The main entrance depicting the three symbols of the armed forces combined will be constructed. The remaining three sides will have the Army, Air Force and Navy insignia separately and will display the army tanks, fighting planes, Navy ships, guns and other weapons used by the armed forces.

Auditorium: A motivational hall will come up near the War Memorial and it will showcase the paintings and photographs of the wars waged by the three divisions of the armed forces. A library, the details of the martyrs, the gallantry award decorated officers, Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa, General K.S. Thimayya and others' photos will be displayed. After the War Memorial in Delhi, the one that is going to come up in the city will attract the maximum attention.

Honour to martyrs: There is a Memorial for the Police, Excise and Forest Department personnel. There is a practice to pay respect to the soldiers, who have laid down their lives by placing the body before the War Memorial. Sadly, until now, since there is no such place, an open ground is being used to pay respect to the soldiers killed in action.

In the light of this, once the War Memorial is constructed then it could be used for this purpose.

This proposal requires the approval of the Cabinet. If the Chief Minister who hails from Mysuru minds it will immediately get the nod. And, if he releases the Rs. 2 crore required for the purpose then the War Memorial will be a reality soon.

ZP meeting discusses poor result in SSLC

Mysuru, May 22 (RKB&DM)- The district's poor showing in the SSLC exam (2016-17) took centre stage at the Zilla Panchayat (ZP) General meeting that began at the ZP Hall here this morning.

Even before the meeting agenda was placed before the members, ZP member from H.D. Kote taluk Venkataswamy moved a attention motion demanding an answer from the Department of Public Instruction on the actual shortage of teachers in Government High Schools.

Alleging that H.D. Kote taluk was discriminated against in the appointment of teachers, Venkataswamy blamed the DDPI for neglecting H.D. Kote taluk.

Expressing huge disappointment over the district slipping to 21st position this year in SSLC result as compared to eighth last year, Venkataswamy who was supported by other members, wanted to know the reasons for the district's poor showing.

Blaming the poor infrastructure and quality of teaching in Government Schools, the members wanted the DDPI to be held responsible for the district's dismal performance.

When DDPI H.R. Basappa sought to explain the measures taken by the Department, the ZP members objected saying that only the ZP President and CEO have the authority to answer in the meeting. They also demanded that action must be taken against all Education Department officials who failed to perform as expected from them.

Dr. Pushpa Amarnath of the Congress wanted a ZP Committee to take a look into the district's poor showing in SSLC results.

Highlighting that whatever measures that are to be taken for improving the performance next year must be implemented at the start of the academic year (June) itself, Dr. Pushpa asked the Education Department to address the shortcomings and work out plans for propelling the district within the fifth position next year.

Suggesting for a thorough introspection for finding out the causes for the district's disappointing performance, Dr. Pushpa appealed the ZP President to immediately convene a meeting of High School Head Masters and come up with appropriate and practical measures for greatly improving the district's performance in future.

ZP President Nayeema Sultana, Vice-President P. Nataraj, CEO P. Shivashankar, members Beerihundi Basavanna, D. Ravishankar, M.P. Nagaraj, Mangala Somashekar and others were present during the meeting.

Search Panel meeting in Delhi to select Mysore Varsity VC cancelled

The two Search Committee members from Delhi Prof. Hari Gautam and Dr. V.S. Chauhan, who had insisted on the meeting being held in the UGC office in Delhi are learnt to be upset about the latest development and may even resign from the Committee. If this happens a new Committee will have to be constituted again, said the sources.

All this will lead to the search for the new VC getting longer. "There is no coordination between the Government and the Governor's office and this is causing all the problems. It is a sad state of affairs that a reputed University in the country has to wait for so long to have a Vice-Chancellor," regretted a professor in the University, who though is eligible for the VC post, has refused to apply citing such uncertainties as the reason.

One of the members, who was in the earlier Search Committee candidly told Star of Mysore on condition of anonymity, "Our role as Search Committee members is minimal. Many candidates come to us with the hope of influencing us. However, the reality is that the Government will have already decided on the candidates. Only in extraordinary circumstances where the aspirant is very good can we suggest the name. Considering the calibre of the candidates now-a-days we just do not have even that luxury."

The tenure of the Vice-Chancellor is for four years and when one reaches 67 years it ends. Hence, there is the possibility for the professors who are 63-years-old to apply. However, if they are a day older than 63, it is said, they cannot apply. In that case two Professors, one from the Chemistry Department and another from Kannada in the University of Mysore, who have both applied will become ineligible, said the source.

Out of more than 150 applicants, 12 names have been shortlisted at the meeting held on May 12 in Bengaluru, said a source. There are a few who have applied who do not fulfil the criteria like completing ten years as Professors. There is also a candidate who is strongly tipped to be the Vice-Chancellor not having a Ph.D.

The Vice-Chancellor's post has been lying vacant since Prof. K.S. Rangappa completed his term on January 10, this year. Prof. Yashwant Dongre was in charge for six weeks and from February 20, Prof. Dayanand Mane is officiating as the in-charge VC.

The Search Committee headed by former VTU Vice-Chancellor Prof H.P. Kincha has three other members — former UGC Chairman Prof. Hari Gautam, UGC Member Dr. V.S. Chauhan and Central University Vice-Chancellor Prof. H.M. Maheshwaraiah.

Officer plays good Samaritan, comes to nomad woman's aid

Not linking Aadhaar to BPL card lands her in trouble

Mysuru, May 22 (RK&KS)- Food and Civil Supplies Senior Deputy Director Dr. K. Rameshwarappa, playing the role of a good Samartin, this morning helped a woman from a nomadic hamlet in Hunsur taluk, get a BPL card to avail free treatment for her husband, who is admitted to Jayadeva Hospital to undergo angiogram procedure.

The nomad woman, identified as 50-year-old Mallika and her husband 60-year-old Hindar Raj of Nallurpatna hamlet in Hanagodu hobli, Hunsur taluk, came to city get her husband admitted to Jayadeva Hospital as he had some cardiac problems.

As Jayadeva Hospital provides free treatment to BPL card holders, Mallika gave the BPL card to the hospital staff for entry and when the staff verified the card, they found that the card was suspended as Mallika had not linked her Aadhaar Card number to it and the hospital staff said that they could not provide free treatment without a valid card.

Food and Civil Supplies senior Deputy Director Dr. K. Rameshwarappa is seen looking at the documents produced by Mallika at his office here this morning.

Perplexed, as the cost of the treatment could run into lakhs of rupees, she rushed to the office of Dr. K. Rameshwarappa, which is located in the Deputy Commissioner's office building here and narrated her problem to the Senior Deputy Director.

Dr. Rameshwarappa, immediately called the Gram Panchayat (GP) Officer concerned. He then instructed the GP official over the phone to take his (Dr. Rameshwarappa) staff along with necessary equipment to take the fingerprint of Hindar Raj who is admitted in the hospital, upload the same in the official website, do the necessary follow-ups and issue a new BPL card to Mallika at the earliest. He informed Mallika that she would get a new card by this evening or by tomorrow afternoon and said that he would speak to the doctors at Jayadeva Hospital to carry on the treatment and would personally produce the BPL card to them.

This gesture of Dr. Rameshwarappa has helped a poor nomad woman avail free treatment for her husband at Jayadeva Hospital here. More such officers are needed in various Government Departments so that the poor would not be turned away for some mistakes in documents but help them to get valid documents to avail facilities on time.

8 steps for positivity

A time-tested yet simple approach to organise a space to enhance the positive energy is by adapting Feng Shui. Ensuring that you have not deviated from the basic tenets of Feng Shui is quite critical as the Art and Science of Feng Shui is to balance the flow of energy — Chi which is not visible but can be felt by the occupants.

In simpler terms, Feng Shui can be adapted in specific sectors of our home to experience its benefits and positive effects. From the path way to your home to your décor inside your home each aspect of your living environment and life can be made more harmonious and prosperous too.

Keeping the home, especially the front bright, nice and fresh smelling ensures that this type of energy permeates into the house and the life of the occupants as the positive forces enter into a building through the main door. Keeping this area free of obstacles, clutter and trash is of great significance in ensuring good Feng Shui. Dead plants, creeper, thorns are not ideal for the front of the building or close to main door. Hence, keeping such plants out of bounds to this sector would be useful.

Some of the basic housekeeping checks can usher in good Feng Shui without much of changes or efforts:

• De-clutter the home to enhance harmony and to let in new things into your life. A tidy home brings in positive flow and creates a calm and relaxing mood.

• Send away broken artefacts or anything which is reminding you of unpleasant moments in your life.

• Segregate the energies of the living area and bedroom by not placing things which relate to your work, business or even equipments which radiate high magnetic fields in the bedrooms.

• Ensure that the furniture are not placed to restrict the movement of the occupants as it symbolises restricting energy flow in the home.

• Hang mirrors in narrow passages or in a narrow foyer after the main door on one of the side walls to increase the fell of the space. However, do not have mirrors facing main door.

• Water is an essential part of our life, hence placing clean water features in a living space will enhance the feel of harmony and tranquillity. Compass direction like North or East are the most general direction acceptable although such water placements need to be handled with care and a proper assessment of the Feng Shui of the home.

• Plants represent wood element and growth, hence placing flowers and plants promote good Feng Shui. Placing bowl of fruits especially oranges and lemons in the living area or dining is said to usher in good luck.

• Avoid sharp corners in the design of your furniture and interiors and ensure that the bed is not facing a sharp corner as this could disturb the calmness and sleep pattern of the occupant.

The simple eight step process can transform your home into a harmonious nest and will give you a basic insight what a authentic Feng Shui can do in your life when implemented professionally.

Mumbai Indians edge Rising Pune Supergiant in thrilling final

IPL Season-10

FINAL RESULTS

MUMBAI INDIANS
129/8 (20 Overs)

BEAT

RISING PUNE SUPERGIANTS
128/6 (20 Overs)

Hyderabad, May 22- Mumbai Indians clinched a thrilling 1-run win over Rising Pune Supergiant to win the tenth edition of the Indian Premier League (IPL). The victory means Mumbai Indians are the first team to win the IPL for thrice.

In a tense finish to a low scoring final, Rising Pune Supergiant needed four runs to win off the last ball. Australian all-rounder Dan Christian managed to get the ball away towards the mid-wicket boundary, but the throw from the deep was accurate enough for Parthiv Patel to break the stumps before Washington Sundar could come back for a third run, which would have led to a super over.

Mitchell Johnson bowled a fabulous last over under pressure, taking the wickets of Manoj Tiwary and Pune captain Steven Smith off consecutive deliveries to tilt the balance in favour of the 'Blue Brigade.'

Earlier, chasing a below par target of 130-runs to be crowned IPL champions in their second season itself, Pune were given a good start at the top by Ajinkya Rahane, who scored 44 of 38 deliveries.

Rahane was dismissed in the 12th over and that is where the match turned. A slow and sluggish partnership between Steven Smith (51) and M.S. Dhoni (10 off 13 deliveries) meant the asking rate started to go up.

The Mumbai Indians bowlers bowled a tight line to push the match into the final five overs, keeping the two-time champions in the hunt. Jasprit Bumrah picked up the important wicket of M.S. Dhoni in the 17th over.

Smith tried his best to bring Pune back in the match by hitting some crisp boundaries but eventually failed to take his team through.

Earlier, Rising Pune Supergiant stifled Mumbai Indians to 129 for 8 riding on commendable bowling effort in the final of the IPL, here on Sunday night.

The two-time champions were completely off-colour with the willow as they played an astounding 54 dot balls (9 maiden overs) in 20 overs, a testimony to their plight.

Save Krunal Pandya (47 off 38 balls), who watched helplessly from the other end, none of the MI batsmen showed judiciousness expected on the grand stage. It was because of Krunal's late hitting (three fours and two sixes) that MI managed to reach close to 130 after being reduced to 79 for 7.

Jaydev Unadkat's (2/19 in 4 overs) dream edition just got better as he dealt twin blows in the third over removing both Parthiv Patel (4) and Lendl Simmons (3) within a space of three deliveries.

Patel mistimed a pull-shot that was taken by Shardul Thakur at mid-on while Simmons was foxed by a slower one which Unadkat smartly snapped inches off the surface.

At 8 for 2, Mumbai's most seasoned pair of skipper Rohit Sharma (24) and Ambati Rayudu (12) came together.

However, they couldn't get going with Washington Sundar (0/13 in 4 overs) again proving to be exceptional during the Powerplay overs.

The 17-year-old bowled 15 dot balls in all — bowling two in Powerplays and two during the middle overs.

Mumbai were under pressure at 16 for 2 in 5 overs before Rohit picked up Lockie Ferguson for some special treatment, hitting four boundaries to get a move on. But it wasn't long before Rayudu was found short failing to beat Steve Smith's direct throw.

The MI skipper would be cursing himself as it was a half-tracker from Adam Zampa (2/32 in 4 overs) which he pulled to mid-wicket fence where Shardul Thakur showed fantastic balance while latching onto a well-judged catch.

Kieron Pollard (7) hit a first-ball six off Zampa but that encouraged the leggie to again flight one outside the off-stump. Pollard took the bait and as has been the case with him was taken in deep by Manoj Tiwary.

At 56 for 5, Mumbai Indians didn't have any chance of recovery. Pandya brothers have had a good tournament but on the day when it mattered most, Hardik played across the line to Dan Christian to be adjudged leg-before.

Shardul once again showed street smartness as he backed up at the striker's end after Karn Sharma's catch was missed by Christian. But his throw saw Shardul racing past Karn to dislodge the bails leaving MI shattered at 79 for 7.

WORD OF THE DAY

Philately

Pronunciation: fuh-LAT-uh-lee
Meaning: The collection and study of postage and imprinted stamps: stamp collecting.
Origin: Who wouldn't love something tax free? George Herpin did. He was a French stamp fancier back in the 1860s, when stamps were a fairly new invention. Before stamps, the recipient of a letter—not the sender—had to pay the postage. Stamps forced the sender to foot the bill, and created a lot of stamp lovers among folks on the receiving end of the mail—and a mania for stamp collecting. Timbromania was toyed with as a term to affix to this new hobby—from the French word for stamp, timbre. But when Herpin suggested philatélie (anglicized to philately), combining the Greek root phil-, meaning "loving," with Greek ateleia, meaning "tax-exemption," stamp lovers everywhere took a fancy to it and the name stuck.

THE ODD WORD

Macrophobia

Fear of prolonged waiting.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Spring fever

Meaning: A feeling of restlessness, excitement, or laziness, brought on by the coming of spring.
Spring fever is one of the rare terms which functions as its own antonym – a contranym – capable of meaning either invigoration or listlessness.
Origin: The exact origin of the idiom is uncertain. The symptoms of this pseudo-illness, which entered English in the mid-1800s, go in two opposite directions: a sense of torpor associated with the season change, or a new-found energy after being confined mostly indoors for the winter. In Old English, and even as late as the 1300s, Lent was used to refer to the post-winter season, though by the end of the 14th century, spring had firmly taken its place.
